

Look at these pictures.

They are a convenience store and a vending machine.

There are many convenience stores and vending machines in Japan. There are fourteen kinds of convenience stores in Japan. Most of them are open for twenty-four hours. We can buy many things there. For example, food, drinks, books, stationery and medicine. There are more than 5,000,000 vending machines in Japan. We can buy many things. For example drinks, ice cream and noodles. Convenience stores and vending machines are very useful for us. If you come to Japan, enjoy shopping at convenience stores and vending machines.