

Seasons

Hello! How are you doing? How's the weather in your country now? It is snowy and very cold in Japan now. We have four seasons.

One of them is spring. It is warm and we can see cherry blossoms. To see the cherry blossoms makes everyone happy. The next season is summer. It is very hot but there are a lot of events. For example, fireworks. We can see it around Japan and it is very beautiful. The next one is fall. It is cool and we can enjoy seeing colored leaves. And its food is very delicious. For example, chestnuts, pacific saury: a kind of fish, baked sweet potato, and so on. The last one is winter. It is very cold and snowy. We can make a snow man and kamakura. Kamakura means igloos.

We can enjoy seasons. And we can enjoy their changes. Which season do you like the best?
